 Call to Worship

Rachel Bennek

One: I give you thanks, O GOD, with my whole heart; before the gods I sing your praise;

Many: We bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and your faithfulness;

One: All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O GOD, for they have heard the words of your mouth.

Many: All shall sing of the ways of the HOLY ONE, for great is the glory of GOD.

All: Though we walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve me against the wrath of our enemies; your steadfast love, O GOD, endures forever.

You're Worthy of My Praise

Come, Now is the Time to Worship

Scripture Reading: Luke 5:1-11

Rachel Bennek

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

One: May God bless the reading of the word.

All: Praise be to God.

The Invitation and Sursum Corda

One: God be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to our God.

One: Let us give thanks to God.

All: It is right to give thanks and praise to our God.

One: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere, to give thanks to our Sovereign God, who through the great teacher and prophet, Jesus, brought good news to the poor, proclaimed release to the captives, recovered sight for the blind, and let the oppressed go free. Therefore, in the company of each other, those who have gone before us, and those around the world who cry out for liberation, we declare in praise...

All: Holy, Holy, Holy, God of boundless mercy and unending love, How majestic is your name in all the earth! Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God; Hosanna in the highest.

Words of Institution

The glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.
